Kent qualified as a Chartered Accountant in 1968 and thereafter obtained a post graduate degree in taxation from the University of Cape Town. He is an honorary life member of the South African Institute of Chartered Accountants and former Chairman of its National Tax Committee. Kent is also registered with the Independent Regulatory Board of Auditors.

Kent specialises in the South African tax system including Income Tax, VAT, Capital Gains Tax, Estate Duty and Donations Tax – in particular how these taxes affect both South African residents and non-residents receiving amounts subject to such taxes and the legal planning for their minimisation. He also deals with South African Exchange Control Regulations as they apply to residents, non-residents, emigrants and immigrants and advises on estate planning including advice in regard to Wills and deceased Estate administration.

Kent is chairman of editorial panel of Integritax which publishes a monthly tax journal for the South African Institute of Chartered Accountants and is also a member of the local tax committee of the Institute.

He is a member of the Crowe Horwath International tax executive committee and is author of the South African chapter of the CCH - Worldwide Business Tax Guide.

Kent was the author of the South African chapter of the IBFD International Guide to Taxation of Real Estate. He is editor and contributor to the technical newsletters issued by Horwath in South Africa. Kent is also a regular lecturer on tax matters and a former University lecturer.
